06:42pm Illegal Drugs – Cherokee Street

An officer stopped a 35 year old Smyrna man because the tag on his 1996 Ford Thunderbird was suspended. The man kept telling the officer he would just roll up his window and leave the car there and he seemed very nervous. The officer patted him down and pulled out a red bag with a $1 bill, some stones, some seeds and a feather. Closer inspection of the bag revealed some cocaine rolled up in the dollar bill. The man was arrested and charged with suspended registration, driving with a suspended driver's license and possession of a controlled substance.
